REUNION CENTER BALLROOM

THE FOX ON THE FAIRWAY* by Ken Ludwig

Performances on April 12, 13 and 14, 2024

A farce about the rivalry between the Quail Valley and Crouching Squirrel Golf Clubs, unwise wagers, questionable sweaters, assorted love affairs and an exploding vase. There are roles for three men & three women.

Henry Bingham – Executive Director of Quail Valley Golf Club

Dickie Bell – Executive Director of Crouching Squirrel Golf Club

Justin – Mr. Bingham’s assistant at Quail Valley

Louise – A waitress in the Quail Valley Tap Room

Pamela – A member of the Quail Valley Board of Directors

Muriel Bingham – Henry’s wife

RIPCORD* by David Lindsay-Abaire

Performances on July 12, 13 and 14, 2024

Immediately following the auditions for The Fox on the Fairway, we will also be auditioning for the two principal female characters for our July production of Ripcord. Both roles have a significant number of lines.

The characters are both elderly women living in a Senior Living Facility:

Abby – a dour woman who dislikes people and company in general and Marilyn in particular. She has no family other than an estranged son.

Marilyn – A happy woman who wants to befriend Abby. She has a supportive daughter and son-in-law as well as a grandchild.

Auditions will be held in April for the remainder of the roles in Ripcord.
